

This and That from our Director

- As another year of exciting events unfold in our diocesan NPM chapter, I invite you to reserve the dates of our activities presented in this newsletter. The St. Cecilia concert and dinner is an affirmation of our ministry and its accomplishments. You will not only be commissioned by our bishop, but will hear his valuable words. Bishop Cupich has supported our NPM chapter in an exceptional manner. Because of his support, NPM is able to present programs of a higher level of excellence.

- Please go to St. Therese's for the musician's spiritual retreat conducted by Fr. Jim Marchionda in Nov. He is a renown music minister with exceptional spirituality. We're so pleased that Fr. Bill Zandri has opened this event up to our music ministers. Watch for more details in the WRC.

- Come to Sturgis in January. See the schedule inside the newsletter. As a bonus, you'll receive WLP FREE MUSIC WITH CD. You might just want to attend the one of our regional conventions after hearing the exciting experiences of the convention panel: East Brunswick,

- NJ (June 30–July 3), Cleveland, OH (July 8–11), Los Angeles, CA (Aug. 5–8). Go to www.npm.org.
- Rehearsals for Our Lady of Guadalupe Dec 1 & 8; 1–3 pm; Blessed Sacrament. Mass: Dec 12. Contact: me for more details or watch WRC.
 - April brings a workshop in Martin. This workshop will discuss our role in the RCIA program and its rites. A speaker from the clergy has been a rarity in NPM so don't miss this event where one of our priests gives his ideas regarding music ministry and liturgy
 - A highlight of our year will be the gathering of children from throughout our diocese at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cathedral June 14, 2008. We challenge each parish to send at least one child with an adult. The day begins early and culminates in a concert at 7:00 pm. St. Martin's will provide housing both Friday and Saturday evenings for those coming from a distance. NPM will absorb the cost so this will be a free service. Children must be accompanied by adult chaperones if they stay at St. Martin's. If their adult chaperone is not their parent, the chaperones must be certified through their parish as a volunteer. This certification must be presented when registering at St. Martin's upon arrival. If you have questions regarding this policy, call or write Linda Severns (605-341-2508 or lseverns@dioc.org). For more information and reservations at St. Martin's, contact Sr. Lorane at 343-8011.
 - The inserted article by Tammy Schnittgrund was printed in the last NPM national magazine. I hope you'll also find it helpful.

Blessings to you all,
Jackie Schnittgrund
