Directors Letter – May 2021

Greetings to all! It's been a long time since our last newsletter, and we've now gone over 15 months since our last quarterly meeting. How we've missed seeing you – visiting, sharing, laughing, learning, and above all, raising our voices together in song!

The pandemic has affected each of us in one way or another, including how we've been able to serve in our ministry in our parish liturgies. The 'getting back to normal' stage for music in our worship has been a slow, but steady process. We are so grateful to see COVID cases trending in an overall downward pattern across the state, while vaccination counts are increasing. Because of these encouraging trends, and in light of Bishop Peter's recent reinstatement of the general obligation to attend Mass, we are thrilled to announce the resumption of our quarterly meetings this summer!

We will hold our Summer NPM meeting on Saturday, June 5, at St. Anthony's Church in Hot Springs. Three fantastic presentations are on the docket that you won't want to miss! Fr. Grant Gerlach will provide us with several important and timely insights on Sing To The Lord. Next up, Peggy Lovrien, a 45-yr member of NPM and retired Director of Worship in the Archdiocese of Dubuque, will visit with us about the formation and implementation of Liturgical committees – she's a powerhouse of information and brings over 40 years of experience as a liturgy director! Our 'Sage on Stage' is Terry Schroeder from Blessed Sacrament Church – she has great stories and perspectives on her service in music ministry! To close the day, what better way to bring calm in our hearts (in the midst of the stresses of the pandemic) with a refresher on Taize prayer! Brad Blauvelt from Our Lady of the Black Hills will give a presentation and lead a prayer service based on Taize. We hope you can come!

Looking ahead to the Fall, we are celebrating our 30th anniversary of the Rapid City NPM Chapter in 2021! Mark your calendars for Friday, Oct 8 (evening) and Saturday, Oct 9 (9am-3:30pm) at Our Lady of Perpetual Help. We have invited Dr. Dan Girardot, nationally-known speaker and retired Director of Music from Austin, TX, to be our featured speaker. Please read the article in this newsletter with an overview of his presentations. We are in for an absolute treat!

RAPID CITY CHAPTER OF NPM

Also, our Fall meeting is our time to honor our diocesan musicians with years of service (10, 25, 40, 50yrs), St. Cecilia Awards (clergy, laity), Peggy Langenfeld Memorial, Emerging Musician (youth & adult) Awards, and our recently added 'In Memorium' acknowledgement of the passing of music ministers and benefactors of music ministry in our parishes. While this past year has not afforded us great opportunities to serve in our ministry, work by many of you has still taken place, or if you haven't nominated someone before for their service in our ministry, now is a great time to do so! Look for additional details inside.

The Silent Auction is back! Carman Timmerman is spearheading this great fundraiser for our chapter. Start thinking now of items you would like to contribute to the auction (crafts, clothing, canned goods, wines, artwork, services (music lessons/vocal lessons), etc. Also, please visit with your parish priest – does he like to golf, ride motorcycles, hunt, cook meals, etc? Get him involved as well for an auctioned event. It's a great way to help engage him further with his parishioners and support NPM! Watch for auction updates in email, our Facebook page, and our webpage, npmrc.org. Bring auction items to our meetings on June 5 or Oct 9, and final bids will take place at our Oct 9 meeting.

We have so much to celebrate this 30th anniversary year, and it all begins with you! Thank you for your continued dedication and service in our music ministry!

Best regards,

Bonnie Josten and Pat McDowell

Fall 2021 Meeting Preview

We are thrilled to have Dr. Dan Girardot from Austin, TX as the featured speaker for our Fall 2021 Chapter meeting/St. Cecilia Awards banquet!

Dan Girardot, D.Min, is the recently retired director of liturgy and music at St. Theresa Catholic Church in Austin, TX. He is a husband and father of three budding music ministers. He served as founding coordinator of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Austin for three years, and is a conductor, cantor instructor, soloist, and clinician at the local, regional, and national level. Dan is a graduate of the School of Music at the University of Texas in Austin and has a Master of Liturgical Studies from the University of Notre Dame. He is an associate member of the Southwest Liturgical Conference Board of Directors and continues to serve his diocese on the Diocesan Liturgical Commission.

Both Jackie Schnittgrund and Tammy Schnittgrund have known “Dr. Dan” for years in working with him at the national level of NPM, and can attest to his warm and engaging personality, as well as the extraordinary manner in which he educates and renews his audience through the spirituality and beauty of the liturgy.
